Four houses of increasing size are arranged from left to right. Each house has an orange roof and a white body. The houses are divided into sections containing dice faces with different numbers of dots:

- House 1: A single square section with 2 grey dots, and two separate square sections below it, one with 1 grey dot and one with 1 red dot.
- House 2: A square section with 3 grey dots, two square sections with 1 grey dot and 1 red dot, and two separate square sections below with 2 grey dots and 1 red dot.
- House 3: A square section with 4 grey dots, two square sections with 1 grey dot and 1 red dot, two square sections with 2 grey dots and 2 red dots, and one square section with 1 red dot.
- House 4: A square section with 5 grey dots, two square sections with 1 grey dot and 2 blue dots, two square sections with 2 grey dots and 1 red dot, two square sections with 1 grey dot and 2 red dots, and one square section with 1 red dot.
